

Aliaksandra Peravalava

Institution: International Institute of Labour and Social Relations

Address: 21/3, Kazintsa street

Postal Code: 220099 Minsk

Country: Belarus

Tel: +375 29 629 43 79

Fax: +375 17 278 03 59

Email: a-perevalova@mail.ru

Web: <http://www.mitso.by>

Aliaksandra Peravalava is a foreign language teacher of the International Institute of Labour and Social Relations, higher educational establishment, based in Minsk (Belarus), accredited by the Federation of Trade Unions of Belarus and with a certified quality system according to ISO 9001:2008 standard.

Aliaksandra Peravalava graduated in Languages – Literature (French, English, Italian) from the Minsk State Linguistic University in 2003. She started working in the field of teaching at the International Institute of Labour and Social Relations a few months after her University graduation.

From 2004 to 2010 she took part in 15 different conferences, international as well. 17 of her papers were published in Russian, English and French. In 2006 she had the book "English and Law" published as a co-author.

Since 2009 she has organized the International Contest of Students' Project Works in Foreign Languages at the International Institute of Labour and Social Relations.

Her spheres of professional interest are Legal English, French Lexicography.