

Kamo P. Chilingaryan

Institution: Peoples' Friendship University of Russia

Address: 6, Miklukho-Maklaya Str

Postal Code: 117198

Country: Russia

Tel: +7 495 759747

Email: chili1@yandex.ru

Web: <http://web-local.rudn.ru/web-local/prep/rj/index.php?id=945>

Kamo P. Chilingaryan is a senior teacher of English at the Law Faculty of PFUR. He graduated in Linguistics from Peoples' Friendship University of Russia in 1991. After graduating PFUR he started his career in teaching English first in private schools, then since 2003 he has been working at PFUR as a teacher of English at Hotel and Tourism Institute and Foreign Languages Department of Law Faculty.

Kamo P. Chilingaryan is the deputy head of Foreign Languages Department and is in charge of organising meetings, international conferences on-line and off-line. He is also the supervisor of various students' conferences and scientific research.

He has been involved in different projects involving usage of new technologies in educational process, giving some advice or coordinating his partners' work. All kinds of advertisements, films and/or presentations made by his students now are available in Youtube. He is the coach of the university team participating Willem C.Vis International Arbitration Moot Court in Vienna (Austria) annually. He has issued several articles both in Russia and abroad.

Kamo P. Chilingaryan is also training law students to participate in Models of UN in Russia, as well as abroad, preparing them to make successful presentations and deliver public speech.

He is one of the main experts at Bachelor and Master degree examinations on English at Law Faculty of Peoples' Friendship University of Russia.