

Anne Llewellyn

Institution: Leeds Metropolitan University Address: 80 Woodhouse Lane, Leeds

Postal Code: LS2 8NU

Country: UK

Tel: +44-113-8124316

Email: a.llewellyn@leedsmet.ac.uk

Anne Llewellyn is a Senior Lecturer and University Teacher Fellow at Leeds Metropolitan University, UK.

She graduated in Social Policy from the University of Leeds in 1989 and obtained and MA in Social Policy in 1998. Since then she has worked in Higher Education and is currently the Course Leader in Social Work at Leeds Metropolitan University

Anne Llewellyn has a particular interest in student learning and the use of technology enhanced learning to provide a quality learning experience. She has worked with a commercial experiential learning company (Toolwire) to develop an immersive learning experience in the virtual learning environment, which was awarded Gold for the External Project of the Year Category at the Learning and Performance Institute Awards in 2013. She has co-authored a number of textbooks and been invited to speak at events and conferences. Anne is currently studying for the Professional Doctorate in Education and her thesis is exploring experiential and immersive learning in social work education

.