

Luce Jacovella

Institution: Queen Mary and Westfield College,
University of London

Address: 142 Levita House

Postal Code: Chalton Street, London

Country: UK

Tel: +44-07553-49.78.42

Email: luce_jacovella@yahoo.com

Luce Jacovella is Research Assistant at the Centre for Commercial law Studies, CCLS, Queen Mary and Westfield College, London University

She has a double scientific and legal background with a PhD in Soil Science (University of Florence, 2000), a Diploma in International Studies and a Master of Research (MRes) in Law (Birkbeck College, University of London 2009). Since then she has constantly been working as research facilitator in various roles in UK universities.

Luce Jacovella has a direct interest in research on HE policies with a particular focus on future models for Higher Education, value judgment chain in knowledge management, value theories, research collaboration, responsible research, mLearning and collective awareness, informal learning and human capital, networking and partnership, internationalization of HE and Intellectual property Rights.

Luce Jacovella has over fifteen years experience in project Management and has coordinated large collaborative projects and major operations at global level.