Cristina Da Milano is the president of Eccom-European Centre for Cultural Organization and Management.

She graduated in Archaeology from the University of Roma "La Sapienza" in 1988. After that she attained a Master of Arts in Museum Studies from the University of Leicester, UK, in 2001. Since then she has constantly been working in the field of museum education and communication at a national and international level.

Cristina Da Milano is an expert in the planning and management of European projects focusing in particular on the areas of education, training and culture.

So far Cristina Da Milano has been involved as project planner and manager in many funded by the European Commission, particularly by the Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013 and by the Culture Programme 2007-2013.

Cristina Da Milano is often invited as a speaker or expert at International Conferences to present her experiences and the European projects in which she is involved.

She has published several articles on the subject of culture as a means of social integration and of museums as places for informal learning addressed to marginalised groups.
