

Eeva Aarrevaara

Institution: Lahti University of Applied Sciences

Address: Ståhlberginkatu 10

Postal Code: 15110 Lahti

Country: Finland

Tel: +358-50 403 6822

Fax: +358 3 828 3015

Email: eeva.aarrevaara@lamk.fi

Web: www.lamk.fi

Eeva Aarrevaara is principal lecturer in LUAS Faculty of Technology, Environmental technology.

She has a Master's Degree in Architecture 1983 from Helsinki University of Technology, now known as Aalto University. She got her doctoral degree in the same university in 2009. She has been working as an urban planner as well as a researcher. Since 2003 Eeva Aarrevaara has been employed by Lahti University of Applied Sciences as a principal lecturer in Environmental Planning.

Eeva Aarrevaara is responsible of a new Master's Degree Programme in Engineering: Sustainable Urban Planning and Climate Change which commenced in 2012 in LUAS. She is also involved with RESCUE project, funded by the Lifelong Learning Programme and carried out in cooperation with Glasgow Caledonian University (UK) and University of Salento (IT) during 2012-2015.