Overview

Training Context

Rosanna is French-Italian, and has been living in Italy for the last 25 years with her husband and daughter. She is a financial controller and is managing the accounts. Her company is part of a French multi-national, so a lot of the internal communication needs to be in English. She gets emails everyday in English, and has to speak in conf calls 2/3 times a month. She would like to call more, but lacks the confidence at present.

She really wants to work her speaking and oral comprehension.

Trainer's overall evaluation

Rosanna has a good basis in English. She can express herself and formulates good sentences. She can talk about her job and her personal life. The key is to build her professional vocabulary and her fluency of speaking. Speaking and oral comprehension should be the core of her training. I would recommend 2 to 3 sessions per week.
