Branka Gradišar is the head of the Slovene language courses programme.

She graduated in the Slovene Language and Comparative literature from the University of Ljubljana in 2010; she has been working at the Centre for Slovene as a Second/Foreign Language since 2006.

Apart from coordinating over 20 Slovene language courses per year she has been involved in the 'Tool for online and offline language learning' project as an author of learning materials and a tutor.

Branka Gradišar has been an initiator of many new forms of Slovene language courses and has been trying to develop a network of Slovene language courses that would meet the needs of all potential users in Ljubljana, Slovenia, where the Centre for Slovene operates.
