Anke Berns has been teaching at the German Department of the University of Cádiz since 1995. In 2002 she got her PhD in the field of German Literature. Since then her research has been focusing mainly on foreign language teaching, hence most of her recent publications are related to this field: Kurzfilme im DaF-Unterricht (2005), DaF y literatura: ¿cómo incluir contenidos literarios en el nivel inicial sin desmotivar a los alumnos? (2005), Didactic material for Preschool and Elementary school students. Video for use in the teaching of English as a foreign Language (2008), Alles klar? Deutsch im Studium und Alltag A1.1 (2010).

In recent years she has also been involved in several research projects, focusing on the exploration of innovative learning and teaching tools related in particular to E-Learning environments. In her capacity of foreign language teacher trainer Anke is often invited to give workshops based on her professional experience.
