

Zuzana Hrdličková

Institution: Slovak University of Technology, Faculty of Materials Science and Technology

Address: Paulínska 16

Postal Code: 917 24 Trnava

Country: Slovak Republic

Tel: ++421-907-348-216

Email: zuzana.hrdlickova@stuba.sk

Web: <http://www.mtf.stuba.sk>

Zuzana Hrdličková is a senior assistant at STU MTF in Trnava.

She graduated in the English language and literature – from the University of Trnava in 2002. In 2005 she took an advanced state examination in English Didactics. Since 1996 she has been teaching English language in primary and secondary schools, the Academy of Education and the Slovak University of Technology in Trnava. At present, she is a doctoral student of English Linguistics at the Faculty of Arts, Masaryk University in the Czech Republic.

Zuzana Hrdličková has always been interested in English Didactics and took part in methodology courses for teachers of English in England (Oxford), Northern Ireland (Belfast) and completed a workplacement in Wales (Cardiff), UK.

She is a member of Slovak Council of CASAJC (Czech-Slovak Association of Language Teachers at Universities).

Zuzana Hrdličková has been working within national and international projects, e.g. Development of Pedagogical Competences of STU MTF Students, Specialized Robotic Systems, etc.

Her professional interests include increasing the quality and effectiveness of English language teaching by using modern ICT, as well as analysing written and spoken discourse.