

Nataliya Belenkova

Peoples' Friendship University of Russia
Russian Federation

Member of the Conference Scientific Committee

Nataliya Belenkova is an associate professor of Foreign Languages Department of Faculty of Law of Peoples' Friendship University of Russia.

Nataliya graduated Moscow State Pedagogical University in Teaching English as a Foreign Language in 1981. Since then she has constantly been working in Higher Education Institutions.

The professional development includes PhD in Pedagogy (in 2010). She has more than 70 publications (including 1 monography) in the field of Teaching English for Specific Purposes, Foreign Language Teaching methodology and E-Learning Issues.

Nataliya is an expert of the State Examination board in English.

Nataliya regularly participates as a speaker or moderator at International and National Conferences on Linguistics and Foreign Language Teaching methodology.

Current areas of research cover new approaches to teaching foreign languages at university, ICT integration in the foreign language teaching, contemporary problems of Pedagogy and Psychology of Higher Education

Areas of expertise: higher education, vocational training, e-learning, new approaches to teaching and learning languages for specific purposes, development of foreign language communicative competences, pedagogy and psychology of higher education, training translation skills.