

Eleonora Pantò

Institution: CSP s.c.ar.l. Address: Via Livorno, 60 Postal Code: I- 10144 Torin Country: Italy Tel: +39-011-4815111 Fax: +39-011-4815001 Email: eleonora.panto@csp.it Web: http://www.csp-it

Eleonora Pantò is the Digital Media and Contents manager of CSP (www.csp.it).

She in charge of technological innovation projects dealing with social computing and particularly referring to elearning, digital communities and open contents, webtv, social media strategy.

She was the project leader of the Dschola (www.dschola.it) project, a regional school network, recognized as a Good Practice by EU. Moreover, she is the Director of the Dschola Association.

She worked in several EU co-financed project related to ICT and education: Integra (@lis framework) a school network involving Europe and South America, E-stream (Minerva) for using video stream in education, Co.Labs (Minerva) for the implementing a Triple Helix model, EDOS (FP7), regarding open source software and recently SVEA (LLL) to promote web 2.0 models in VET and adult training and MEDEA2020 (LLL). She was also the coordinator of the IANIS+ E-Learning Working Group.

She managed two research laboratory in collaboration with University of Torino, related to Social Media (www.socialmedia.csp.it) and Knowledge Communities (www.keilab.it).

She published books and essays on the impact of ICT and Internet on education and workplace. She is actively involved in promoting Open Education Resources.

She runs her own blog, Puntopanto (www.puntopanto.it) dedicated to technology, learning, citizen journalism and media.

