Ms Liisa Wallenius (MA) is a Senior Lecturer of Swedish and English at HAAGA-HELIA University of Applied Sciences Porvoo Campus. Her other duties include coordinating international work placement and managing a R&D development project.

She has extensive experience in corporate language training as a training manager, coordinator, lecturer and test developer. She takes an active role in developing HE language education locally, nationally and internationally. She is the vice-chairman of the Association of Swedish teachers in Finland.

At the moment she manages a Lifelong learning languages project ELPiPL that focuses on implementing and promoting the European Language Portfolio and Europass.

Her research interests lie in foreign language education and teacher development.
