

How to Further the Higher Education in Hungary? Particular Situation of the Rural Colleges

László Kadocsa, Gyula Gubán

College of Dunaújváros (Hungary)

kadocsa@mail.duf.hu, guban@mail.duf.hu

The key objectives of the EU employment strategy in 2020, R & D / innovation, energy, education and poverty, exclusion, contact owners, which is linked to four key priorities for smart, sustainable, inclusive economic growth and governance in the text. The 2011th national Higher Education Act adopted in December tried to take into account the objectives.

The performance of an economic and policy context, taking into account the new law addresses the opportunities and coordination of the EU requirements analysis, meeting points. This connects the College of Dunaújváros investigation of the particular situation. It outlines the new situation suited to college opportunities strategy, which focuses on the entrepreneurial university has become. It covers the structure of training, institutional change management tasks, research, development and innovation of presenting specific solutions. Examples to illustrate the previous developments in the application and presents the results of the regional efforts to become a center of knowledge. It shows the relationship between education and the regional economy has developed models of a wide range of domestic and international partnerships, the involvement of regional business opportunities.