

Mariam Mohamad

Institution: University of Southampton

Address: Building 32, Southampton

Postal Code: SO17 1BJ

Country: United Kingdom

Tel: (023) 8059 2998

Fax: (023) 8059 3556

Email: M.Mohamad@soton.ac.uk

Mariam Mohamad is a final year PhD candidate at the University of Southampton, United Kingdom in the field of Mobile Learning.

Mariam holds various qualifications from international institutions; Masters Degree in Computer Based Learning & Training and Bachelor of Science in Information Technology from the University of Southampton, United Kingdom. In addition, she also holds an Associate Degree in Information Engineering from Takuma College of Technology, Japan. Besides, she was also awarded with Malaysian Skills Certificate Level 2 and Level 3 in Information Systems.

Having graduated from Japan, Mariam started her career as a Manufacturing Programme Management Executive in Gateway (Malaysia). She was then continued her career as an Assessor and Internal Verifier for National Vocational Training Council, Malaysia before continuing her studies in the United Kingdom.

Mariam's research interests are in the field of educational technology concentrating on the deployment of mobile learning in mainstream education. Besides finishing her doctoral degree, she also actively involves in presenting and publishing articles related to the field.