Mary Margaret Sweeten is an Adjunct at Eastern Michigan University.

She received her Bachelor of Science and Masters in Education from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan, USA and her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts from the University of Windsor in Windsor, Ontario, Canada. She has spent her entire career in the field of urban public education.

During her thirty-six years as an urban educator, guidance counselor and gender equity and diversity consultant for the Detroit Public Schools, Ms. Sweeten has worked with students at all grade levels in a wide variety of school settings. She also designed and led numerous professional development sessions for fellow educators and parents on a wide range of topics relevant to urban education, equity and diversity, student needs and social issues effecting school, students and their families.

Currently Sweeten teaches curriculum and instruction in the Teacher Education Department in the College of Education at Eastern Michigan University.
