Hanne Pedersen is Leader of CEA, Center for Education and Animation, The Animation Workshop, VIA University College, Denmark.

Hanne Pedersen is trained as an animator, and has since 1994 worked with education through animation.

Hanne has, as a project manager at CEA, The Animation Workshop, VIA University College, Denmark, initiated in a number of European projects involving animation as a learning tool. The Life Long Learning Program has supported the projects Teaching with Animation, Animated Science and the latest Animated Learning, that focuses on learning and reading difficulties in the primary school and special needs institutions.

CEA has an activity called The Travelling Workshop (TW). This activity has initiated a number of animation workshops in cooperation with NGO's all over the world, focusing on different topics, depending on the specific needs in each country.

Amongst others has TW directed animation workshops in the Filipinas, focusing on therapy through animation working with sexually abused kids.

In Bolivia TW developed the animation environment in order to give Bolivia a voice. The activity should strengthen the awareness Bolivian culture in a global context. A 10 min. animated film, La Abuela Grillo, was produced during the project.

TW activities are supported by the Danish Foreign Ministry by CCD.
