Kanyarat Sriwisathiyakun

Institution: Sripatum University
Address: 61 Phaholyothin Rd.,jatujak, Bangkok
Postal Code: 10900
Country: Thailand
Tel: +66-845-516-654
Email: Kanyarat.sr@spu.ac.th
Web: http://www.spu.ac.th

Kanyarat Sriwisathiyakun is an Assistant Professor in Faculty of Information Technology at Sripatum University. She has been teaching more than 12 years in the University.

She graduated in Master of Science in Computer Science from Rangsit University in 1994. Now she is studying in a doctoral program in Educational Technology at Kasetsart University, Bangkok Thailand.

Kanyarat Sriwisathiyakun is an expert in E-Learning system, New Media and also interested in Innovation in particular on the area of education.

She focuses on the research for the educational technology development for educational institution in Thailand. Her recent researches include "The Student Satisfaction Factors of e-Service in Higher Education", and "The Achievement of Integrated Learning using Learning Objects for Teaching in Normal class room for Introduction to e-Business". So far she has been working the research on "Collaboration Oriented Learning Objects Model Base on Constructivistm".

Kanyarat Sriwisathiyakun was published several journals in Thailand and also involved as a speaker in national and also International conferences. She is often invited as a speaker or expert at the organizations and universities in Thailand to present her Educational Technology experiences and also as an instructor in projects training of Information Technology.