

Nikolina Mladenova Sretenova

Institution: Institute for the Study of Societies and Knowledge, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

Address: 13-a Moskovska str.

Postal Code: 1000, Sofia

Country: Bulgaria

Tel: +359-2-862.68.43

Email: sretenova@hotmail.com

Nikolina Sretenova is a Senior Researcher/Associate Professor in the Institute for the Study of Societies and Knowledge of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. She graduated in Physics at Sofia University and then defended her PhD thesis on the philosophy of physics. She was also a visiting Fellow in France (CNRS), Germany (Max-Planck-Institute for History of Science), The Netherlands, Sweden, UK and the USA. Her expertise lies in the field of History & Philosophy of Science (in particular Physics), Gender Studies (in particular women in science issues; gender and education), Migration Studies (in particular brain drain issue). She is author of two monographs and more than 90 publications in her areas of research.

Nikolina Sretenova is the Bulgarian ENWISE Expert.

Some of the major activities of Nikolina Sretenova:

- ✓ Partner of the EC FP6 and FP7 funded projects.
- ✓ Participation in several Expert Groups launched by DG for Research of the European Commission dealing with different aspects of women under representation in scientific research.
- ✓ Participation in the Expert Group launched by the United Nations Division for the Advancement of Women (DAW) on Gender, Science and Technology.
- ✓ Evaluation and assessment experience - 10 years experience of evaluation of research projects as invited Expert Evaluator from DG for Research of the European Commission (from 1999 to 2011).
- ✓ National representative of the Program Committee 'Science in Society'/Capacity Programme of the FP7.