Bozica Ilijic is an expert in the planning and management of European projects focusing in particular on the areas of education, training, culture, climate change and new technologies. She has been working on different projects for many years ranging from international project management of private and public partnerships to various EU projects. She holds a master's degree in translating and interpreting from the University of Vienna and a professional MBA in Project and Process Management from the Vienna University of Economics and Business. She is also a certified project manager according to the IPMA and PRINCE2 and is an experienced business trainer for project management, soft skills and languages.

Bozica Ilijic is currently Coordinator of the Leonardo da Vinci project "Creative Learning Communities" (www.skills4me.eu), an EU innovative project designed to explore and create improved teaching and learning pathways, enhancing a sense of initiative and personal entrepreneurship. Furthermore, she is involved in Daphne III project "Virtual Stages Against Violence" (www.virtualstages.eu) and works on COMENIUS "CLIMES" project, regarding climate change (www.climes.eu).

Bozica Ilijic is often invited as a speaker at International Conferences to present her experiences in European cooperation and the European projects in which she is involved.
