

Eleonora Pantò

Institution: CSP s.c.ar.l.
Address: Via Livorno, 60
Postal Code: I- 10144 Torin
Country: Italy
Tel: +39-011-4815111
Fax: +39-011-4815001
Email: eleonora.panto@csp.it
Web: <http://www.csp-it>

Eleonora Pantò is the Digital Media and Contents manager of CSP (www.csp.it).

She is in charge of technological innovation projects dealing with social computing and particularly referring to elearning, digital communities and open contents, webtv, social media strategy.

She worked in several EU co-financed projects related to ICT and education: Integra (@lis framework) a school network involving Europe and South America, E-stream (Minerva) for using video stream in education, Co.Labs (Minerva) for implementing a Triple Helix model, EDOS (FP7), regarding open source software and recently SVEA (LLL) to promote web 2.0 models in VET and adult training and MEDEA2020 (LLL), BOOGames and VISIR. She was also the coordinator of the IANIS+ E-Learning Working Group.

She was the project leader of Dschola (www.dschola.it) a regional school network, recognized as a Good Practice by EU. Moreover, she is the Director of the Dschola Association.

She managed two research laboratories in collaboration with the University of Torino, related to Social Media (www.socialmedia.csp.it) and Knowledge Communities (www.keilab.it).

She published books and essays on the impact of ICT and Internet on education and workplace. She is actively involved in promoting Open Education Resources.

She runs her own blog, Puntopanto (www.puntopanto.it) dedicated to technology, learning, citizen journalism and media.