

Hala Sayed Elkhawanky

Institution: Myngle.com
Address: Wibautstraat 129
Postal Code: 1091GL, Amsterdam
Country: The Netherlands
Tel: +31(0)20-468-8288
Fax: +31-84-7593774
Email: hala@myngle.com
Web: www.myngle.com

Hala EL-Khawanky is Myngle's Education Manager.

She is responsible for teacher selection and training, evaluating language courses and guiding teachers in the development of their courses. She is also a certified Arabic and English teacher with Myngle.

Hala was born in U.A.E, and lived in Abudhabi for 14 years before returning to her home in Egypt.

Hala has 8 years professional experience in both offline and online language training. She received her qualification as a certified T.E.F.L. teacher from the Cambridge Training College in the U.K. and recently became accredited with the Lancelot School Certification, one of the first internationally recognized certificate programs for online teaching professionals specializing in methodology, intercultural competence and technology for teaching a language in virtual classrooms using state-of-the-art synchronous internet communication tools. Hala has taught students from many countries worldwide, and has gained extensive experience in corporate coaching, notably with various departments of the U.N., the European Commission, the Spanish Embassy, and the Spanish Commercial Office.

Hala has given presentations and held lectures on many occasions on subjects ranging from Education Technology, organizing and developing effective methodologies, classroom pedagogy, time management and teamwork in the classroom. Her most recent presentations are " Changing the Future of Language Education" dealt with the subject of Distance Education given on the occasion of the Nile TESOL Convention in Cairo. Followed by a presentation in Online Educa Berlin December 2010. Along with Online presentation on the Virtual Round Table Conference.

Hala also speaks Spanish, Italian and is currently learning German.